I was over at the Mall this afternoon picking up ice melt, and went into Hannafords, the big food store up here, to buy a model railroad magazine off the magazine rack, and I over-heard this conversation between two of the clerks:

YOUNGER GUY: Did you check out ObamaCare?

OLDER GUY: [rolls eyes]

YOUNGER GUY: Way too expensive.

OLDER GUY: Ayup.

YOUNGER GUY: I'll give them a year to fix it.

OLDER GUY: It's going to be just like socialized medicine.

So there is the opportunity and the challenge.

NOTE I know it's an anecdote. Anecdotes are what we have right now.
